Catherine Goodnight Selected to Help Lead Young Professionals Group

Evans & Dixon L.L.C. attorney will serve on advisory committee for "The Network"

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. – Evans & Dixon L.L.C. is pleased to announce that Catherine D. Goodnight, senior associate in the firm's workers' compensation practice, recently was selected to serve on the advisory committee for "The Network," the Springfield Area Chamber of Commerce's young professional's organization.

Goodnight was one of 15 committee members selected from a pool of more than 60 applicants. The advisory committee will provide leadership and make decisions regarding programming for "The Network." The Springfield Area Chamber kicked off "The Network" in June 2007 to attract, retain and engage young professionals ages 21-40 in the chamber and the community. With more than 275 active members, this group provides professional development and networking opportunities through a variety of activities.

Goodnight also is involved in many other community activities. She recently was selected into the 2007-2008 class of the Greater Ozarks Leadership Development program, which is sponsored by Missouri State University and collaborates across public, private and civic sectors to foster community development and economic growth. She was appointed in 2004 to the City of Republic Business Commission in Republic, where she resides. She is a new member of the Junior League of Springfield and is a member of the Springfield Area Chamber of Commerce's education and workforce development committee and the manufacturer's council. She also is a member of the Springfield Metropolitan Bar Association, the Missouri Bar Association and the Arkansas Bar Association.

Goodnight received her law degree from the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville in 2000 and received a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Central Arkansas in 1997.
