ST. LOUIS – Evans & Dixon L.L.C. has hired two associates in their St. Louis office – Sarah Reichert and Katherine Ogle. Gregory Godfrey, Executive Director and CFO, made the announcement.

“We are honored to add these individuals as members to our team,” said Godfrey. “Each has talents and experience that we look forward to utilizing at our firm.”

Ms. Reichert joined the Evans & Dixon team in August 2009 as an Associate in the firm's Workers' Compensation Practice group. Prior to Evans & Dixon, L.L.C., Ms. Reichert served as an Assistant Attorney General for the Missouri Attorney General's Office, defending the Second Injury Fund as well as the State in workers' compensation matters. She has experience handling cases in a variety of industries related to the following workers' compensation injuries, including: amputations, heart attacks and strokes, assaults/violent acts, back injury/pain, carpal tunnel syndrome, chemical burns, and more.

Ms. Reichert earned her bachelor of arts degree from Drury University, Springfield, Mo., in 2001 and her J.D. from the University of Arkansas School of Law in 2004.

Ms. Ogle joins the Evans & Dixon team this month as an Associate in the firm's Workers' Compensation Practice group. After earning her bachelor of business management degree and a masters in business administration degree from Western Illinois University, Ms. Ogle went on to earn her J.D. from Southern Illinois University (SIU). While at SIU, Ms. Ogle received a Dean's scholarship in 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2009 as well as an SIU Alumni Scholarship in 2006. She is a member of the Illinois State Bar Association and is licensed to practice in Illinois.
