ST. LOUIS – Attorney Talmage E. Newton IV has been promoted to senior associate at Evans & Dixon L.L.C. The announcement was made by Lawrence L. Pratt, civil practice group leader.

As an attorney in the firm’s civil litigation group, Newton has handled a variety of civil and criminal litigation matters in state and federal courts. “Talmage has proven himself as one of the best and brightest attorneys and we are honored that he is part of our team,” said Pratt.

Newton represents clients in business and contract disputes, employment matters, personal injury and insurance cases, class actions, and appeals. In addition to being named an administrative hearing officer for the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department’s Board of Police Commissioners, Newton has a wide experience with litigating cases involving municipal employment matters affecting government employees and law enforcement officers.

Newton also participates in the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis’ “Fox 2 Call-a-Lawyer Program,” in which members of the community may call in with a variety of personal legal issues. He is a member of the Missouri Bar Association and the American Bar Association, and participates in community groups such as Friends of the St. Louis Zoo and Young Friends of the St. Louis Art Museum. Newton received a law degree from the University of Missouri–Columbia, and a bachelor’s degree in political science from the University of Evansville.
